Connect with each other in joy and concern

- As time allows, general conversation about the sermon is welcomed.

Discussion Questions

- Share a personal experience or milestone that marked a moment of maturity or growth in your life. How did this experience shape your understanding of maturity?
- Discuss the connection between stability and maturity, as outlined in Ephesians 4:13. Have you ever experienced a period of instability that hindered your growth or spiritual development? How did you navigate through it?
- Consider the concept of "entire sanctification" or Christian perfection as discussed in Wesleyan theology. Do you believe perfection is attainable in this life? Why or why not?
- The sermon highlights the importance of being grounded in love and oriented towards Christ as key aspects of maturity. How do you currently prioritize these aspects in your life, and what challenges do you face in doing so?
- The sermon encourages us to linger in the love of God as we strive for maturity and perfection. How can you incorporate intentional practices of experiencing and dwelling in God's love into your daily life?
