

Freedom Songs

DISCUSS, JOURNAL OR REFLECT ON THE QUESTIONS
INSPIRED FROM THE STORY IN EXODUS 5

- On a scale of 1-5 how comfortable are you with conversations about oppression? (1 very uncomfortable- 5 very comfortable) What makes this topic more approachable for you?
- Share a time when your heart has been softened by the oppression of other people.
- Pharoah was obsessed with productivity. Where is this still at work in our society?
- Where have you noticed people or organizations working well together to make it possible for all people to make progress together?
- Where was/is the starting point or next step for you in working tow overcome oppression? What do you need make a move?
 - Identifying and facing fears
 - Connecting with people with different experiences than my own
 - Investigating the scriptures and God's heart for hurting people to build confidence
 - Gaining a more diverse definition of freedom
- Theological Dive: Explore "atonement theories"
 - What difference does it make if we understand Jesus as Christus Victor? and not only Moral Example or a substitute for our debt of sin.