Discussion Questions

- The angels song motivated the shepherds to search for the savior. In recent months, who or what has been a source of motivation for you?
- How would you describe yourself "in all your glory"? In other words- what does a public display of your best and truest self look like in the world?
- Describe a time when you most clearly saw or believed what God revealed about himself to you. What difference (if any) has that revelation made for your life choices and daily habits?
- The shepherds left their fields to go find God in the city; Where might God be calling you to move away from? Where might God be calling you to move to?
- The story indicates there was initially one angel, and then a whole host who supported the story of God's glory amongst the shepherds. If your life was this story, who would you cast as the "heavenly hosts" that motivate you to keep moving in your faith journey? What lyrics would you write to reflect the songs that the "angels" in your life sung to you?
