

“Mutuality in Relationships: Nurturing Authentic Connections” Ruth 1&2
Erin Burleson, April 21, 2024

Connect with each other in joy and concern

- As time allows, general conversation about the sermon is welcomed.

Discussion Questions

- Share an experience where you discovered mutual support in a relationship, whether it's with a friend, family member, or mentor. How did this mutual support strengthen the relationship?
- Have you ever experienced a relationship where there was a lack of mutuality? How did it affect the relationship?
- Reflect on whether you tend to be more of a giver or a receiver in your relationships. How does the sermon's message challenge you to strike a balance between giving and receiving?
- Discuss the concept that the purpose of charity is to affirm dignity. How can acts of charity and support be conducted in a way that upholds the dignity of the recipients?
- Reflect on the idea that God may not always be named in our relationships, but His presence can be evident. How have you experienced God's work through your connections with others?
- Share any ideas or experiences you have about creating spaces where everyone's contributions are valued and celebrated.
