Discussion Questions

- Name a time that you have stood in direct disobedience to unjust request. What was the request and what was the consequence of your disobedience?
- What is the authority or power present in your life that you most respect?
- Sam mentioned several stories of civil disobedience found through Scripture. What story were you most familiar with? What story most surprised you?
- In your lifetime, what has been the clearest example of something being legal that is not necessarily moral?
- If Jesus were to show up in the 21st century and start a political coup where would it be? What tables would he be overturning today?
- If Christian acts of civil disobedience are grounded in humility and directed towards holiness, which of these two ingredients is most needed in our current political sphere?
