Connect with each other in joy and concern

As time allows, general conversation about the sermon is welcomed.

Discussion Questions

Around the circle: (A question to get everyone talking and involved)

- What's the best or worst "thank you" you've ever received?

Select Few: (Questions designed for a few group members to offer personal experience or vulnerable insights.)

- The psalmist implies that God is one who saves, stabilizes, and who gives a song and a purpose. Through your own experiences, how would you describe or relate to God? God is one who... ?
- What specific actions do you appreciate and acknowledge as God's work in your life?
- What difference does God make in your day to day life? What difference does he make in the greater community?
- How do you show gratitude to God? What might you do to be even more public with your gratitude, knowing it is a witness for others?

Dig Deep: (A question that may or may not be answered in session, but should be encouraged for members to wrestle with all week.)

- Who or what have you taken for granted? How might you practice gratitude to regain a healthy relationship?
